PACFED BENEFIT ADMINISTRATORS ANNOUNCES APPOINTMENT OF ANN ELKIN TO THE MUSIC FUND OF LOS ANGELES BOARD OF DIRECTORS

(Glendale, Calif. – August 28, 2019) PacFed Benefit Administrators (PacFed) is pleased to announce the appointment of Ann Elkin to the Board of Directors of the Music Fund of Los Angeles, a non-profit organization providing financial help to professional musicians, music students and youth music programs in the Los Angeles area.

Elkin has worked in the area of trust fund administration at PacFed since 1995 and currently serves as vice president of Client Services and Regulatory Compliance. In this capacity, she oversees the administration of several trust funds and ensures their compliance with federal and state laws. She also serves as the company's privacy officer.

Prior to joining the PacFed, Elkin assisted in the administration of various trust funds and was the in-house administrator for the Professional Musicians Local 47 and Employers' Health and Welfare Fund – which she continues to administer.

"Ann has extensive training and education in trust administration, and has earned the admiration and respect of her industry colleagues," said PacFed President Jim Garrison. "I know she will make a meaningful difference in the lives of professional musicians who are in financial distress and struggling to contribute to the future of music in Los Angeles."

Elkin has also completed a number of the Certified Benefit Specialist courses. She is also a graduate of the International Foundation of Employee Benefit Plans' Administrator Master's Program.

About The Music Fund of Los Angeles

The Music Fund of Los Angeles is a 501(c)3, charitable organization providing financial help to professional musicians, music students and youth music programs in the Los Angeles area. The Fund was founded in 2007 by Hal Espinosa, then-President of the American Federation of Musicians Local 47, who saw a need for a charitable organization that could help musicians in financial distress. Its primary mission is to provide financial assistance to musicians who are unable to work due to sudden illness, poverty or other distress, provide scholarships to students of music, and to sponsor youth music programs and live music events throughout Los Angeles.
