

Sandra S. Corral, Esq.
ISCEBS, CEBS, PFAC
Administration and Compliance Attorney
PacFed Benefit Administrators

Biography

Sandra S. Corral serves as administration and compliance attorney at PacFed Benefit Administrators, a subsidiary of Pacific Federal, LLC (PacFed), where she is responsible for several multiemployer health and welfare trust funds. PacFed, a Zenith American company, is one of California's largest and most experienced employee benefits firms.

Prior to joining PacFed, Sandra worked in law enforcement for the United States Department of Labor's Employee Benefits Security Administration where she coordinated the civil and criminal litigation/prosecution of Employee Retirement Income Security Act (ERISA) violations and related state and federal statutes.

Sandra is an active participant in the Los Angeles business community, serving on the boards of directors for the San Gabriel Valley Civic Alliance and the Valley Industry and Commerce Association in the San Fernando Valley. She is a contributing member of the International Society of Certified Employee Benefit Specialists and the Professional Fiduciary Association of California.

An experienced and well-respected leader in both the law and employee benefits fields, Sandra holds a deep knowledge of health and pension law, fringe and supplemental benefits laws and regulations, and union and labor standards. She is also a steadfast advocate for the disadvantaged population in Los Angeles, serving as pro bono counsel for various legal aid foundations for many years.
