PACIFIC FEDERAL TO BE INDUCTED INTO THE SAN FERNANDO VALLEY BUSINESS HALL OF FAME

(Glendale, Calif. – April 18, 2019) The Valley Industry and Commerce Association (VICA), one of Southern California’s most influential business advocacy organizations, will induct Pacific Federal, LLC (PacFed) into the San Fernando Valley Business Hall of Fame for its leadership in business and contributions to the community on Thursday, June 20 at the Sheraton Universal Hotel near Los Angeles.

Founded by VICA in 2008, the San Fernando Valley Business Hall of Fame recognizes individuals, businesses and community organizations for contributing to the continued success, economic vitality and culture of the San Fernando Valley. This year’s event, celebrating VICA’s seventieth anniversary, will be emceed by KNBC-TV weathercaster Fritz Coleman. Festivities will begin with a reception at 5:30 p.m., followed by the awards program and dinner.

“VICA has a long and successful history of ensuring the business community’s voice is represented at all levels of government,” said Jim Garrison, president of PacFed, one of Southern California’s most experienced employee benefits firms. “Our entire team is honored and humbled to join the ranks of so many remarkable business and community leaders committed to improving the economy and quality of life in the San Fernando Valley.”

Headquartered in Glendale, Calif., PacFed is a Zenith American company, providing health and retirement benefits for nearly 2 million families from over 40 offices across the U.S. A member of VICA since 2002, PacFed is represented on the organization’s board of directors by Sandra S. Corral, Esq., an experienced administration and compliance attorney who is responsible for overseeing several multiemployer health and welfare trust funds.

Other San Fernando Valley Business Hall of Fame inductees for 2019 include Los Angeles Department of Water and Power, Paris Industrial Parks, Aerojet Rocketdyne, Westfield Group, Gaines & Stacey and California Resources Corporation.
